

Service	Description	Cost
Consultations	Consultation for study planning at any point in the study	Free
Tailored recruitment plans	Services and evidence-based activities for participant recruitment, retention, and dissemination.	Free
Social media recruitment, dissemination, and evaluation	Development of evidence-based recruitment materials for paid advertising campaigns and organic recruitment; implementation and monthly management of ongoing campaign recruitment services; templates to streamline IRB review; dissemination and participant engagement.	Free and fee-based
Participant-facing communication support	Development and editing of participant-facing recruitment materials using evidence-based templates.	Free
Feasibility queiries and translation	Cohort identification using the integrated data repository (IDR)/i2b2 and translation of cohort findings for grants and publications	Free
Support for grants and sponsored projects	Includes tailored Recruitment and Retention and Recruitment Facilities and Resources documentation, budgeting for services and written budget justifications for proposals, letter of support for CTSI Recruitment Center Services.	Free

The UF CTSI is supported by NIH Clinical and Translational Science Awards UL1TR001427, KL2TR001429 and TL1TR001428, and by significant support from UF's Office of Research and UF Health.